

Kuruomians March for Pulwama Martyrs

The martyrdom of the CRPF jawans at Pulwama in Jammu and Kashmir on Thursday has angered the citizens of the country with no bounds.

As a tribute to the bravehearts and for showing solidarity with their family members Kuruom Vidyalaya organized a 8 KM candle march from Kuruom campus to Dhanpatganj block under the leadership of Kuruom Principal, Mrs. Shagufa Afzal, all the teachers and students on Monday, 18th February 2019.

This candle march began from the playground of Kuruom Vidyalaya at 10:00 AM and reached the martyr chowk Dhanpatganj at 12:00 PM. On the way students shouted patriotic slogans, waving the National Flag and displaying playcards with patriotic thoughts and slogans.

In this march school parents, local residents and shopkeepers also participated. They supported this candle march providing marchers with snacks, water, sweets, etc. at various places along the way.

At the chowk all lit their candles and observed a two-minute silence to pay homage to the martyrs. Kuruom Principal Mrs. Shagufa Afzal condemned the cowardly terrorist attack and said it was unforgivable. She expressed her sympathy and condolences to those who lost their sons, husbands and fathers.

Student led march is first in the district and perhaps in the entire nation. Mrs. Afzal said, “Kuruom Vidyalaya takes pride in infusing independent thoughts among its students”.

“This is an opportunity for them to express their passion for the country through their thoughts in the slogans”, she added.
