On this occasion, an essay competition was organised among the teachers. 'Why Gandhi Ji called National Father of India?', was the topic for this competition. All participants came with different ideas and gave various logics and examples in support of their statements. The debate came to an end with the solution that we cannot use non-violence at every field of life now-a-days practically, but non-violence is better solution than violence and we can start with it in every problems of life and it gives permanent solutions.

Kindly add 2-3 lines how program concluded, there should be some vote of thanks. Were there any students also, if yes....please write 1-2 lines about their participation?
